

FFSC Calendar of Command Training

Naval Base San Diego

Naval Base Coronado

Naval Base Point Loma

JULY 2006

FFSC Overview

FFSC can provide commands with a 20-minute overview of services, programs, and workshops offered at our three sites. For more information or to schedule, call 619/556-7404 or email: FFSCMobility@navy.mil.

Command Leadership Orientation

This orientation is designed to provide Command Leaders with a complete, one-day overview of FFSC services and available community resources. Guest speakers will provide up-to-date information on FFSC programs, WIC, Personal Property, Retired Activities Office, Navy Legal Services Office, Housing Office, and much more. This pilot program is open to Commanding Officers, Executive Officers, Department Heads, Division Officers, Master Chiefs, Senior Chiefs, Chiefs, Ombudsmen, Family Support Members, and Command Leadership Spouses. Seating for each class is limited to 22 attendees, so call 545-6071 or email: FFSCCareer@navy.mil to register.

Fleet Liaison Orientation

The Fleet Liaison Program is intended for Command Master Chiefs, Command Senior Chiefs, Chief Petty Officers, and members of their Chief Petty Officers Mess. Alternating every other month, this class is offered to First Class Petty Officers. Fleet Liaisons spend a full day learning the specifics of helping agencies such as The Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society, American Red Cross, Family Advocacy, ASYMCA, Transition and Spouse Employment Programs, Command Financial Specialist Program, and others. Fleet and tenant commands rotate sending a representative to spend a week at FFSC assisting service members and families as well as becoming more aware of FFSC programs and services. For more information or to register, call 556-8669.

July 27, Thursday, 7:30 AM--4:30 PM, NBSD, Bldg. 259, Classroom 1

Division Officer Local Area Resources Seminar (DOLARS)

This workshop provides Junior Officers with valuable information about the variety of San Diego resources available to assist sailors and their families. Twenty-one service and health providers participate in the workshop. To register, call Bill Colford at 556-8669 or email him at william.colford@navy.mil.

This workshop is offered to Command Family Support Groups and is customized to fit your FSG's needs whether you are starting a new group or revitalizing an existing group. Topics include establishing groups, recruiting members, increasing teamwork, effective group structures, and project ideas. This training is offered by request, at times convenient for the participants.

Life Skills Programs

Anger and Stress Management GMTs

This one-hour training is designed to help military members learn more effective ways of dealing with anger and manage the stress associated with work and home environments.

Suicide Prevention and Awareness GMTs

Learn to recognize early warning signs and what can be done to prevent a potential suicide.

Family Advocacy Programs

Domestic Violence, SAVI, and Suicide Prevention GMTs

In order to meet the time demands placed on commands by the increased pace of operations, FFSC has introduced a new option for completing GMT requirements. It is now possible to send a portion of your personnel to an identical, three-hour training that combines these three GMTs at a centralized location. FFSC will continue to conduct training at individual commands upon request.

Child Abuse Prevention GMT

This 45-minute GMT will help military members identify the 4 types of child abuse: emotional, physical, sexual, and neglect. The training will cover reporting requirements, warning signs, and prevention issues as well as provide referral resources.

Domestic Violence Awareness Leadership Training

The FAP Program offers training focused on military leadership regarding Sailor retention, safety issues, confidentiality, victim sensitivity, and command requirements as well as the latest trends.

Domestic Violence Prevention GMT

This 45-minute training is designed to help military members identify domestic violence, cycles of violence, and warning signs as well as what referral resources are available.
